SECTION 505.14 – Code of Iowa

"When by the laws of any other state a premium or income or other taxes, or fees, fines, penalties, licenses, deposit requirements or other obligations, prohibitions or restrictions are imposed upon Iowa insurance companies actually doing business in the other state, or upon the agents of the Iowa companies, which in the aggregate are in excess of the aggregate of the taxes, fees, fines, penalties, licenses, deposit requirements or other obligations, prohibitions or restrictions directly imposed upon insurance companies of the other state under the statutes of this state, the same obligations, prohibitions or restrictions of whatever kind are in the same manner and for the same purpose imposed upon insurance companies of the other state doing business in Iowa. Insurance premium taxes paid which were not paid under protest shall not be refunded if the refund claim is based upon an alleged error or mistake of law or erroneous interpretation of statute regarding the validity or legality of this section under the law or constitutions of the United States or this state. For the purpose of this section, an alien insurer is deemed domiciled in a state designated by it wherein it has (1) established its principal office or agency in the United States, or (2) maintains the largest amount of its assets held in trust or on deposit for the security of its policyholders or policyholders and creditors in the United States, or (3) in which it was admitted to do business in the United States. This section does not apply to ad valorem taxes on real or personal property or to personal income taxes."

ANNUAL REPORT
MARKET CONDUCT DIVISION

Dramatic increases in monies recovered and agent prosecutions marked calendar year 1984 in the Market Conduct Division. While the total number of consumer complaints rose only slightly from previous years, the number of complicated, time consuming types of cases increased remarkably. In the past year, a large percentage of employees' time has been directed toward priority tasks such as the investigation and prosecution of the numerous companies caught improperly marketing the Estate Conservation Plan to elderly Iowans and the cases involving agent Forrest Hubers. Six companies were disciplined for marketing the Estate Conservation Plan through agents who misrepresented the nature of the policy being sold. Several staff people spent weeks and months investigating complaints and negotiating settlements and premium refunds for consumers. The Forrest Hubers case involved lengthy investigation and several meetings with Mr. Hubers and Equitable of Iowa which consumed many hours per month over most of the year. This included interviewing victims and overseeing the return of their monies. Neither matter was fully resolved as of December, 1984.

As the graph in Appendix 1 shows, this division handled approximately 425 formal consumer complaints per month for the 1984 calendar year. The issues presented ranged from companies being slow in response to consumers to companies refusing to pay legitimate claims or refusing to insure for an illegal reason. Consumer complaints were sent to the appropriate insurance company for comment upon receipt by the division. Once the company's response was received by the department, an attorney reviewed the file and determined whether the consumer's problem had been solved or the law had been violated. At times, additional information or an agent's statement was necessary to complete the review. Once we had all of the required information, the file was either closed or an administrative proceeding was commenced. Files were closed through the use of a form letter if the consumer's complaint was fully resolved, or through a personal letter if we were unable to resolve the problem. As an example, in 1984, it was necessary to dictate over 500 individual letters to consumers with life insurance complaints where circumstances did not permit the use of the standard closing letter. In the midst of this, the professional staff also allotted time for agent prosecutions as well as the constant daily consumer telephone calls and walk-ins. While reviewing consumer complaints is a major function of the division, and is recognized as such, equally important are the prosecutions that result from those complaints. Without prosecutions and enforcement by this Department, the necessary element of voluntary compliance becomes tenuous.

As one of the major responsibilities of the division, agent and company prosecutions require a great deal of time because of the large amount of work required. This includes investigations, notice preparations, negotiations and settlements or presenting evidence at a hearing and preparing a proposed order. During the past several years there has been a dramatic increase in the number of agent prosecutions from 41 in 1980 to 120 during 1984, as the attached graph, Appendix 2, shows. As is also illustrated by that graph, the number of agent revocations has increased by 35% since 1980. This division begins disciplinary actions for a variety of activities, including misrepresentation of policy provisions, failure to comply with continuing education requirements, unlicensed agent activity, and misappropriation of funds. Of these the most prevalent is the last. Agents were frequently disciplined for taking clients' money but failing to purchase insurance coverage for them or, in the case of Forrest Hubers, taking money for a nonexistent investment company.

During 1984 this division recovered a total of $8,650,593 for the public as well as $57,335 in fines collected as a result of disciplinary actions. This compares with $2.3 million recovered in 1983 and $1.4 million recovered in 1982.

In addition to the consumer complaints and agent prosecutions, this division is responsible for insurance agent licensing and continuing education. During 1984 this division administered 14,462 examinations at $10 for a total of $144,620 in exam fees. As a result of agent license renewals, 22,584 licenses were issued for the 1984-1985 license year at $10 for a total of $225,840 in renewal fees. We renewed 192,286 company appointments at $5 for a total of $961,430 for appointment renewals. In January, 1985, we mailed renewal notices to 27,110 eligible agents which would indicate that we reinstated or licensed new agents amounting to 4,526 new licenses at $10 for a total of $45,260. We have no specific figures on the number of company appointments issued during the year, but each new agent or reinstated agent must be appointed to do business with at least one insurance company and many are appointed with a number of companies. The department also issued Letters of Certification or Clearance Letters throughout the year at a cost $5 each. Licensing activities resulted in $1,331,890 for renewals and examinations alone.

In addition to the above described activities, this division was active in preparing and amending numerous rules relating to the various responsibilities of the Department. The New Model Replacement Regulation and Variable Life Insurance Regulation were adopted. Major amendments were made in both the licensing and continuing education rules to update and correct them, as well as to implement new procedures. In a bold move, after several years of working with employers, workers' compensation self-insurance regulations were written to codify the Insurance Department's role in Chapters 84 and 87 of the Iowa Code in order to provide better protection for the public.

In conclusion, 1984 was a demanding year for this division. Professional and clerical staff alike worked at peak capacity all year under highly stressful conditions to give this division its best year yet.
